

Manage Money and Realize Ideas

Time: 24 September, 2017 Place: Holmenkollen Park Hotel, Oslo

Target Audience: Immigrants

Organizer: The Competence Center for Immigrants (CCI)

Money and business ideas are very important for anyone and any business although other facts will affect also doing business. How to manage money to gain the best benefit or profits? How to develop new ideas to run the business, and eventually realize them into success? This half-day workshop will address those issues by two experienced experts from an investor's perspective and an entrepreneur's view of point, respectively.

The workshop is free of charge, but all attendees must register online at <http://workinginnorway.no/node/8430>. The deadline of registration is 20th September. Please note that the registration is binding. No show after registration will be charged with the actual expense per person.
